

Listing of Career Fair Providers Across the U.S.
Military/Veteran & Military Spouse

Web Host	Web Address	Comments
ClearedJobs	www.clearedjobs.net	Always open to anyone who holds a Secret Clearance or higher. Offers resume reviews by professional coaches and counselors at each career fair. Excellent advice offered via registering program notices.
Corporate Gray	www.corporategray.com	Carl Savino was the first to offer career fairs for transitioning military. Most of his career fairs are focused to the military, active and retired. Some include spouses. Most are "Military friendly," i.e., non-military or veterans are welcome. This includes Government employees, and those who hold Clearances.
JobZoneOnline	www.jobzoneonline.com	Military focused. Some career fairs are for military, veterans and family members only, some open to all. Career Fair listings indicate attendance.
Military-Civilian	www.military-civilian.com	A combination of two earlier websites. Offers services of job postings, a job board for transitioning military and veterans and their spouses. Also has a LinkedIn site with Hot Jobs for Veterans and families: http://bit.ly/military-civilian .
MilitaryConnection	www.militaryconnection.com/jobfairs.asp	A small selection that is drawn from a small sweep of the web. Also offers a listing of virtual career fairs that are in truth links to employers who claim to be military/veteran friendly. This virtual list currently contains 160 employers. A job seeker clicks on the employer site to see what the employer does and then can click to job openings, then to posting a resume.
Military MOJO	www.militarymojo.org/event-location	A new site offering an extensive career fair outing that requires pre-registration. Career fairs are for

RecruitMilitary	www.recruitmilitary.com	officers, sometimes including Warrant and E-9s but not always. Can sign up for notices.
Serving Talent	www.servingtalent.com	Strictly for transitioning military, veterans and sometimes spouses. Career fairs are listed by date with location after date. This is a full-service recruiting agency serving only the spouses of military and Foreign Service Officer wives. All fees are with the hiring employer. This boutique staffing organization is composed of a Navy wife and a Foreign Service Officer's wife. They operate similar to an executive search firm rather than as a standard search firm.
TAOnline	www.taonline.com	An aggregator of career fair listing that is quite accurate. Focuses on career fairs offered to the military and to the veteran. Also lists hiring events of Orion and Bradley.
TargetedJobs	www.targetedjobs.com	Focused to those who hold a clearance. Offers hosting for employers. Focused in the Eastern half of the country for the most part. Texas is the farthest west their fairs have been identified on their web site.
TechExpo	www.techexpo.com	Focused on the eastern half of the US. All requires clearance, most require TS or above, some re strictly Poly or Cyber.
TransitionCareers	www.transitioncareers.com	Heavily focused to the East Coast but offers some career fairs in Colorado, Ohio, Texas and the West Coast. Shows only current month schedule.
US Chamber of Commerce	www.uschamber.com/hiringourheroes	A national coverage that lists career fairs by date Lists networking event for military spouses. Added two-day programs for spouses to assist in job search.
VeteranRecruiting	www.veteranrecruiting.com/calendar	This is a site of a monthly virtual career fairs for active duty, veteran, and military spouses. In February it is strictly for Officers, in May for military spouses.

VetJobs	www.vetjobs.com/media/upcoming-military-related-careerfairs	Comprehensive listing of career fairs focused to the transitioning and transitioned military person.
VetReady	www.vetready.org	Being revised and updated. Not available as of 6 September 2018.

Private Sector focused but Open to all unless otherwise specified in the listing

Advance Healthcare	www.advanceweb.com/attendee/default.aspx	Offers both live and online career fairs for professionals in the Healthcare industry.
Career MD	www.CareerMD.com	Site that offers evening career fairs across the country for Physicians. Most gatherings are in a hotel and run from 5 PM to 8 or 9 PM. Listings are chronological rather than by location.
Catalyst Career Group	www.catalystcareergroup.com	Career fairs offered across the country but in scattered locations. Does not compete with National Career Fairs in size. Focuses on Professional careers.
Cherokee Nation Business (CNB)	www.cherokeenationbusiness.com/pages/home.aspx	CNB has operations in 49 states and 11 countries Currently and operates as a contractor and subcontractor to the U. S. Government and DoD. The full state of job posting is: www.cnbjobs.com
Choice Career Fairs	www.choicecareerfairs.com	Similar to Catalyst. Focuses on the generalist who is professional, i.e., exempt versus non-exempt in the workplace.
Coast to Coast	www.coasttocoastcareerfairs.com	Same as Catalyst and Choice. More so with Catalyst than with Choice in terms of attendees.
Diversity Hiring Expos	www.diversityhiringexpos.com	Offers career fairs focused to Diversity, EEO, as well as general professionals. Career fairs are in the southeast with an occasional career fair in Texas.
Equal Opportunity Publications	www.eop.com/expos.php	Career Fairs are for EEO/Diversity, and STEM candidates.

LATCareers	www.LATCareers.com	National in coverage. Focus is on Latino professionals.
National Career Fairs	www.nationalcareerfairs.com	Depending on the specifics of the address can get either a state by state offering where the job seeker then must go into the state to find the city, then click on the city for the time, date and location. Another option is to access the list by city within eight regions beginning with the northeast. There the list is alphabetical by city and on the year's calendar. All entries are for the first four months of the year.
Nemnet Minority Recruitment	www.nemnet.com	This is a listing of academic opportunities where the career fairs are at local schools, usually private schools. The job seeker on seeing a city location must Google the school for the address. Pre-registration is required. Most of the career fairs are in the Northeast but a few are as far south as Atlanta, GA.
Potomac TechWire	www.potomactechwire.com	A free daily email newsletter that summarizes business technology in the Washington, DC area each business day, lists programs positions and seminars as well as organizational change.
Bay Area TechWire	www.bayareatechwire.com	Same here as for Potomac TechWire, except for Bay Area of California.
United Career Fairs	www.unitedcareerfairs.com	Scattered nationally. Focus is on Sales, Sales Management, and Business Development..
September 30, 2018		